If a California case is cited before the time it is published in the Advance Sheets of the Official Reports, a copy of that case shall also be attached and tabbed. (Eff. 7/1/03)

5.4 CRIMINAL DISCOVERY

Discovery in criminal actions is reciprocal in nature and is governed by Penal Code §§ 1054 et seq. There shall be a standing order in each criminal action requiring all parties and their attorneys to comply with Penal Code §§ 1054 et seq. The order is deemed to have been made and communicated to all counsel at the time of arraignment.

Before a party may seek Court enforcement of any of the disclosures required by law, the party shall make an informal request of opposing counsel for the desired materials and information in the manner required by Penal Code § 1054.5(b). Failure to make such request shall be grounds for denial of a discovery motion. Informal requests should be presented to opposing counsel in writing.

Motions for discovery shall be focused upon specific items which remain in dispute after presentation of informal requests. “Boilerplate” discovery motions are disfavored. Counsel shall meet and confer in a good faith effort to resolve or narrow the disputed issues before the hearing of any discovery motion.
(Eff. 7/1/03)

5.5 CONTINUANCE OF CASES SET FOR TRIAL

Motions to continue the trial of a criminal case are disfavored and shall be denied unless the moving party, pursuant to Penal Code § 1050, establishes that the interests of justice require a continuance. (Eff. 7/1/03)

In criminal jury trials, the instruction forms contained in the latest edition of California Jury Instructions—Criminal (CALJIC)—shall be used whenever applicable.

Proposed pattern jury instructions that have been modified by a party shall specify in parentheses or other appropriate manner the respect in which the instructions have been modified.

6.3 CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION / ORDERS PENDING HEARING

(a) Visitation Policy. It is the policy of the Court that the child(ren)'s previously established living situation should not be radically altered during the pendency of custody and visitation disputes. Only under extraordinary circumstances will the Court deny access of one parent to the child(ren) or change any child(ren)'s principal place of residence pending a hearing on the matter. Therefore, any application to change the child(ren)'s living situation prior to a Court hearing shall include the following:

- The current Court Order (if any);
- The current child-sharing schedule or agreement (if any);
- Any change in the child(ren)'s place of residence in the previous 120 days and the circumstances surrounding those changes;
- The proposed time-sharing plan;
- Reasons for any proposed changes in the child(ren)'s living situation; and
- Any other relevant information.

(b) Supervised Visitation. In some cases, the Court will order visitation supervised by Plumas County Family Court Services. The Court will regularly evaluate the costs of such supervision programs and will order the parent whose visit is supervised to pay for such supervision costs unless good cause is shown. This parent must make payment arrangements with the County Treasurer's office. If the parent falls more than $250 behind in payments toward the cost of supervised visitation, then the visitations will cease until the arrearages are brought back to $250 or less. (As Amended, Eff. 1/1/05)

6.4 MEDIATION

Parents who are not in agreement regarding custody and visitation in the matter before the Court will be required to attend mediation in an effort to resolve the dispute.

Generally, this will happen before any Court orders are made; the Court may make temporary orders where necessary, pending further order of the Court to be made at a scheduled hearing. The purpose of mediation is to develop a custody and time-sharing agreement which is in the child(ren)'s best interest.

Parents are entitled to two two-hour mediations without charge in any twelve-month period unless they are enrolled in the Restart Program, in which case they are entitled to additional mediations without charge. Parents who continue to be unable to resolve their parenting disputes after two mediations in a twelve-month period may have continued mediation at a rate of $50.00 per hour or the then-current rate charged by Family Court Services.

(a) Scheduling of Mediation. When parents attend mediation, they shall contact the Plumas Family Court Services Department for assignment of a mediator and to make an appointment for the mediation. The telephone number is (530) 283-4792.

Where a protective order as defined in Family Code § 6218 is in effect, or when there is a history of domestic violence, or when either party requests separate sessions, the mediator shall meet with the parties separately and at separate times.

In accordance with Family Code § 3176, the parties will be notified by mail of the time of the mediation unless they waive the right to a mailed notice, or unless Family Court Services is unable to obtain a mailing address for the party.

(b) Challenge of Mediator. In accordance with Family Code. § 3163, if a person wishes to challenge or change the mediator assigned to the case, he/she should do so by contacting Family Court Services, which will make a determination regarding the request.

(c) Who May Attend Mediation. Generally, the only persons in attendance at a mediation session are the two parents and the mediator. However, the mediator has discretion to allow other person(s) to participate in the mediation process.

When visitation issues arise between persons other than the parents (such as grandparents or step-parents), the persons attending mediation shall be determined by the mediator.

(d) Conduct of Mediation. Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and are confidential. All verbal communications from the parties to the mediator shall be deemed to be confidential information, not to be discussed unless such information impacts issues of safety to the parties or the children.

(e) Mediator's Report. The mediator will write a report to the Court, giving copies to the parties and their attorneys, if they are represented by counsel. If the report delineates terms of an agreement, the parties will be asked to sign the report after they have had the opportunity to review it with their attorneys.

If the parties are unable to agree regarding custody/visitation, the mediator will not make a recommendation to the Court regarding custody/visitation. However, the Court may request that the mediator summarize the respective positions of the parties at a subsequent contested hearing.

(f) Ex Parte Communications. The mediator will not initiate ex parte communication with the Judge regarding a particular case except where there are questions regarding procedure in that case. If the mediator finds it necessary to discuss substantive issues with the Judge, the mediator shall so inform each of the parties of the communication. (Eff. 7/1/03)

6.5 CONTESTED CASES

Following mediation, if there are still unresolved issues regarding custody and visitation, the Court may schedule a hearing. The Court may order a custody evaluation before hearing the case. Following a hearing, the Court may make temporary orders pending the completion of a custody evaluation. . The parties will be ordered to pay for the cost of the custody evaluation. (Eff. 7/1/03)

The Court may close the courtroom to allow only parties and necessary persons in certain custody and visitation proceedings where it would not be in the best interest of the children to have their issues heard in public.

6.6 CUSTODY EVALUATION

If a custody evaluation is ordered by the Court, the Clerk will inform Family Court Services for assignment of a child custody evaluator. The parties or their attorneys will be informed of the assignment of the evaluator by written notice.

(a) Challenge of Evaluator. If a person wishes to change the assignment of the child custody evaluator, he/she should do so by contacting the head of the Family Court Services Department who will make a determination regarding the request. If such a request for a change of evaluator is made, the request must be made within 10 calendar days of receiving the notice of assignment of evaluator from the Family Court Services Department.

(b) Evaluation Process. The child custody evaluator will contact the parties directly to request information to begin the process. The parties will respond promptly; any delay in response may create delays in completing the evaluation and thus delay resolution of the custody dispute.

(c) Ex Parte Communications. The child custody evaluator will not conduct ex parte communication with the Judge regarding a particular case except where there are questions regarding procedure in that case. If any substantive issues are discussed with the Judge, the evaluator shall so inform each of the parties of the communication.

(d) Evaluation Report. A Court date will be set to receive the report of the child custody evaluator. The report will be sent to the Court, the parties, and their attorneys prior to that date. The parties may stipulate to accept the recommendations of the child custody evaluator, or the Court may set the matter for a contested hearing.

(e) Payment for Custody Evaluation. Both parties will be referred to the County Treasurer's office to set up payment arrangements for the custody evaluation. The court will periodically review the costs incurred in performing the custody evaluation and will set the custody evaluation fee accordingly. If a party should fail to set up payment arrangements, or should fail to make periodic payments for the custody evaluation, then the custody evaluator may unilaterally cancel the custody evaluation. In such event, the custody hearing will go forward without the custody evaluation, and the court may take into consideration a party's non-compliance with the payment arrangements. (As Amended, Eff. 1/1/05)

6.7 CHILD AND SPOUSAL SUPPORT / INCOME AND EXPENSE DECLARATION

Failure of the moving attorney or moving self-represented party to be present at the hearing or to inform the Courtroom Clerk of his or her presence shall result in the matter being removed from the calendar. If the responding party has appeared, but the moving party has not, attorney's fees and costs may be awarded to the appearing party. In the event the responding party fails to appear, the Court may continue the matter and award attorney's fees or enter an order on the pleadings and/or the testimony of the moving party.

This draft OAH should be submitted to opposing counsel for approval as to form and forwarded to the Court. Faxed OAH's are acceptable. (a) All attorneys appearing in juvenile dependency proceedings must meet the minimum standards of competence set forth in these rules. These rules are applicable to attorneys representing public agencies, attorneys employed by public agencies and attorneys appointed by the Court to represent any party in a juvenile dependency proceeding.

(b) Every party in a dependency proceeding who is represented by counsel is entitled to competent counsel. [CRC 1438(b)] “Competent counsel” means a state bar member in good standing who is trained in the juvenile dependency law, and who demonstrates adequate forensic skills, knowledge and comprehension of the substantive law of juvenile dependency, the purposes and goals of dependency proceedings, and the procedures for filing extraordinary writ petitions. [CRC 1438(b)(1)]

(c) Attorneys are expected to meet regularly with clients, including children; contact social workers and other professionals associated with the client’s case; work with other counsel and the Court to resolve disputed issues without hearing; and adhere to mandated timelines. The child’s attorney is not, however, required to assume the responsibilities of a social worker or to perform services for the child unrelated to legal representation. [CRC 1438(b)(4)]

(d) All attorneys retained, assigned or appointed are required to adhere to the timelines and the procedures stated elsewhere in these rules or as provided by Statute of California Court Rules of Court for settlements, discovery, protocols and other issues related to contested matters. (Eff. 7/1/03)

(b) A Certificate of Competency shall be completed by the attorney of record for the dependency matter and submitted to the Court within 20 days of his or her first appearance in a dependency matter.

(c) Failure to submit a Certificate of Competency will cause the Court to notify the attorney that his or her right to practice in dependency proceedings is revoked. The attorney shall have 30 days from mailing of the notice to submit a Certificate of Competency. If the attorney, after such notice, fails to submit a Certificate of Competency, the Court shall issue an order prohibiting the attorney from practicing in dependency proceedings.

Pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code § 603.5, such infraction proceedings are excluded from the rules of confidentiality usually applicable to juvenile matters.

RULE 8. COURT APPOINTED
SPECIAL ADVOCATE PROGRAM (CASA)

8.1 ADOPTION OF COURT APPOINTED SPECIAL ADVOCATE PROGRAM.

The Court hereby adopts the guidelines for the Court Appointed Special Advocate Programs (CASA) set forth in Welfare and Institutions Code Sections 100-109 and California Rule of Court 1424, as well as the policy and procedures manual of the Plumas County Court Appointed Special Advocate Program, as a Local Rule of Court applicable to CASA, and the guidelines are incorporated herein by reference.

The Court may appoint Special Advocates to represent the interests of dependent children. In order to qualify for appointment, the Special Advocate must be trained by, and function under, the auspices of CASA, formed and operating under the guidelines established by the National Court Appointed Special Advocate Association (Welfare and Institutions Code § 1356.5)

CASA shall report regularly to the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court with evidence that it is operating under the guidelines established by the National Court Appointed Special Advocate Association and the California State Guidelines for Child Advocates. (Eff. 7/1/03)

8.2 SPECIAL ADVOCATES

Special Advocates serve at the pleasure of the Court having jurisdiction over the proceeding in which the Special Advocate has been appointed.

(a) Functions of Special Advocates. In general, a Special Advocate's functions are:

- (1) To support the child throughout the Court proceedings;
- (2) To establish a relationship with the child to better understand his or her particular needs and desires;
- (3) To communicate the child's needs and desires to the Court in written reports and recommendations;
- (4) To identify and explore potential resources that will facilitate early family reunification or alternative permanency planning;
- (5) To provide continuous attention to the child's situation to ensure that the Court's plan for the child is being implemented;
- (6) To communicate and coordinate efforts with the case manager (probation officer or social worker) to the fullest extent possible;

(7) To communicate and coordinate efforts with the child's attorney to the fullest extent possible; and,

(8) To represent the interests of the child in other judicial or administrative proceedings.

(b) Sworn Officer of the Court. A Special Advocate is an officer of the Court and is bound by these rules. Each Special Advocate must be sworn in by a Judge or Court Commissioner before beginning his or her duties and shall subscribe to a written oath.

(c) Specific Duties. In its initial Order of Appointment, and thereafter in subsequent orders as appropriate, the Court may set forth the Special Advocate's duties in each case, including interviewing and observing the child and other appropriate individuals, reviewing appropriate records and reports, consideration of visitation rights for the child's grandparents and other relatives, and reporting back directly to the Court in accordance with the functions set forth in § (a).

(Eff. 7/1/03)

8.3 RELEASE OF INFORMATION TO SPECIAL ADVOCATES

(a) To Accomplish Appointment. To accomplish the appointment of a Special Advocate, the Judge or Commissioner making the appointment shall sign an order granting the Special Advocate the authority to review specific relevant documents and interview parties involved in the case, as well as other persons having significant information relating to the child to the same extent as any other officer appointed to investigate proceedings on behalf of the Court.

(b) Access to Records. A Special Advocate shall have the same legal right to records relating to the child he or she is appointed to represent as any case manager (social worker or probation officer) with regard to records pertaining to the child held by any agency, school, organization, division or department of the State, physician, surgeon, nurse, other health care provider, psychologist, psychiatrist, mental health provider or law enforcement agency. The Special Advocate shall present his or her identification as a Court-appointed Special Advocate to any such record holder in support of his or her request for access to specific records. No consent from the parent or guardian is necessary for the Special Advocate to have access to any records relating to the child.

(c) Report of Child Abuse. A Special Advocate is a mandated child abuse reporter with respect to the case to which he or she was appointed.

(d) Communication. There shall be ongoing, regular communication concerning the child's best interests, current status, and significant case developments, maintained among the Special Advocate, case manager, child's attorney, attorneys for the parents, relatives, foster parents, and any therapist for the child. (Eff. 7/1/03)

8.4 RIGHT TO TIMELY NOTICE

The moving party shall provide the Special Advocate timely notice of any motions concerning a child for whom a Special Advocate has been appointed. (Eff. 7/1/03)

8.5 CALENDAR PRIORITY

In light of the fact that a Special Advocate renders a volunteer service to children and the Court, matters on which they appear should be granted priority on the Court's calendar whenever possible. (Eff. 7/1/03)

8.6 VISITATION THROUGHOUT DEPENDENCY

A special advocate shall regularly visit the child to whose case he or she has been appointed. The advocate shall monitor the case as appropriate until dependency is dismissed. (Eff. 7/1/03)

8.7 FAMILY LAW ADVOCACY

Should the Court dismiss dependency and create family law orders pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code § 362.4, the Special Advocate's appointment may be continued in the family law proceeding, in which case the Court, by specific Order, shall set forth the nature, extent and duration of the Special Advocate's duties in the family law proceeding. (Eff. 7/1/03)

8.8 RIGHT TO APPEAR

A Special Advocate shall have the right to be present and be heard at all Court hearings and shall not be subject to exclusion by virtue of the fact that he or she may be called to testify at some point in the proceedings. A Special Advocate shall not be deemed to be a "party" as described in Title 3 of Part II of the Code of Civil Procedure. However, the Court, at its discretion, has the authority to grant the Special Advocate amicus curiae status, which includes the right to appear with counsel. (Eff. 7/1/03)

8.9 DISTRIBUTION OF CASA REPORTS

(a) CASA reports shall be submitted to the Court at least 5 Court days prior to the hearing.

(b) CASA shall serve a copy of the report on the parties to the case including, but not limited to: County Counsel; Attending case Social Worker; Child's Attorney; Parents' attorney; Child (via Foster Family Agency); ICWA Representative (if applicable); and, de facto Parents.

(c) CASA shall serve a copy of the report on the parties entitled to receive a copy of the report at least 2 Court days prior to the hearing. (Eff. 7/1/03)

8.10 RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL OF SPECIAL ADVOCATE

A Special Advocate may resign from an individual case or the CASA program or may be removed from an individual case in accordance with California Court Rules of Court, Rule 1424(h). (Eff. 7/1/03)

RULE 9: MISCELLANEOUS

9.2 GUARDIANSHIP INVESTIGATIONS

Upon the filing of a Petition for guardianship, the Court shall order the appropriate level of guardianship investigation. Petitioner shall be required to pay for the actual cost of the guardianship investigation. (Adopted, Eff. 1/1/07)
